Mr. Hughes was admitted to the bar in 1903, and in 1804 he rose to Cabinet rank. This was in Australia's first Labor ministry—that of J. C. Watson. He was Minister for External Affairs during the short life of the Watson government, but on the Labor party again coming into power in 1908 he hecame Attorney-General. This position he has held in every successive Labor Cabinet, and he does not expect to re-
